

SWK503 Social Policy Analysis and Development

Level: 5

Credit Units: 5 Credit Units

Language: ENGLISH

Presentation Pattern: EVERY REGULAR SEMESTER

Synopsis:

Social Policy Analysis and Development focuses on the development and analysis of social policy highlighting the impact of social policy on people. This involves critical examination of social policies, their goals, values and strategies. Social legislation at the macro level as well as policy implementation and evaluation will also be covered. The international perspectives in social policy and cross national experience in dealing with social problem will be discussed.

Topics:

- Understanding the history of social welfare and social policy
- Appreciation of relevance of social work and social policy
- Discussion on social worker's role and participation in developing social policies
- Legislative concepts influencing of social policy
- Evaluation of historical context of social policy
- Synthesis of social, political and economic analysis of social policy
- Assess and address barriers to social policy development and analysis including conflict in values, ethics and professional responsibility
- Stakeholder engagements and consultations in social policy process
- Implications of racial, gender, age, disability, sexual orientation, cultural and socioeconomic differences for policy development
- Consideration of international perspectives to influence local social policy making process
- Contemporary models of social policy thinking such as relational thinking, data analytics, design thinking and behavioural economics
- Insights into futures thinking and implications to social policy development

Textbooks:

Becoming an Effective Policy Advocate 8th Bruce S. Jansson Brooks & Cole
ISBN-13: 9789814844901

Learning Outcome:

- Analyse social policy in terms of its historical content, goals, values, benefits and services provided and methods of finance.
- Discuss the influence of social-economic factors on planning and the development of social policy.
- Examine the goals, values and strategies of social planning and social legislation.
- Appraise the international perspectives in social policy and dealing with social problem.
- Evaluate recent policy changes and their impact on current services and clients
- Draft a sample social policy

Assessment Strategies - Regular Semester (Evening Class):

Components	Description	Weightage Allocation (%)
Overall Continuous Assessment	TUTOR-MARKED ASSIGNMENT 1	50
Overall Examinable Components	Written Exam	50
Total		100

*The information listed is subject to review and change.